

II Peter 2:18- 22

Monday

Have you ever been with someone who is a slick taker?

What is he like? What does he promise?

Have you ever been a victim of a conman? What did you lose?

Tuesday

How does Peter describe the lying prophets words? (2:18)

Their words appeal to one what? (2:18)

How did the evil people of whom Peter wrote affect others? (2:18)

Who are these lying prophets targeting? (2:18)

Wednesday

What did such sinful men promise? (2:19)

We are to use our freedom for what? (Galatians 5:13)

To what were sinful people slaves? (2:19)

What is another word for bondage?

What does Romans 6:12-14 command?

Thursday

How did Peter say a person could escape the corruption of the world? (2:20)

How does one get entangled with the world?

In what way would it have been better for ungodly people to have never heard of God?

Why? (2:21)

Friday

What kind of picture is Peter painting?

What proverbs did Peter apply to the blatantly ungodly? (2:22)

Why did Peter use the sow as an example?

Saturday

Beginning today, from what sinful desire will you ask God to help you escape?

What steps will you take today to ensure that you don't allow your exercise of freedom to result in your enslavement to sin?

How will you deal with the effect of living in a sinful world today?
